Juvenile Arrested in Alcoa Shooting Death

The Alcoa Police Department has charged a 16-year-old male with delinquency by criminal homicide in connection with the shooting death of sixteen-year-old Tamir Shareef. The suspect is currently being held in the Juvenile Detention Center of the Blount County Sheriff's Office. Shareef was found shot to death on November 14th in the Bell Street area of Alcoa.

This arrest concludes many hours of investigation by a team of detectives from the Criminal Investigations Division of the Alcoa Police Department, with the assistance of other area agencies including the Blount County Sheriff's Office and the Fifth Judicial Drug Task Force.
